RESOLUTION FROM THE WARWICK CITY COUNCIL IN SUPPORT OF THE FRIENDS OF SALTER’S GROVE COMMUNITY GROUP’S SUBMISSION OF A
CHAMPLIN GRANT APPLICATION FOR IMPROVEMENTS TO THE GEORGE B.
SALTER MEMORIAL GROVE

Resolved that,

WHEREAS, the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the City of Warwick are matters of paramount importance to the City Council; and

WHEREAS, in recent years, there have been significant efforts made towards restoration and conservation of the area known as the George B. Salter Memorial Grove (“Salter Grove”) in Warwick, RI; and

WHEREAS, these efforts, including the installation of a new playground, the repair of the causeway, and the tagging of plants along five (5) nature trails, has increased public usage of Salter Grove, and in turn, has also increased vehicular traffic; and

WHEREAS, the “Friends of Salter Grove” community group has made efforts to update parking and alleviate traffic concerns, but needs additional funding to continue to improve safety measures and aesthetics in the parking area of Salter Grove; and

WHEREAS, the Friends of Salter Grove will be applying for a Champlin Grant from the Champlin Foundation to make improvements, including but not limited to, new gravel, rock replacement, paved parking spots, various plantings and lawn hydroseeding and replaced and improved signage, so that the residents of Warwick, RI may continue to safely enjoy Salter Grove.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Warwick City Council hereby supports the submission of the Friends of Salter Grove’s grant application to the Champlin Foundation Champlin Grant program for improvements to the George B. Salter Memorial Grove parking lot.

This Resolution shall take effect upon passage.
